Sunday roast and Speaker Jam

Jon has stated that he has had a call from the chair person for the of the 8th of Dec convention and this is no longer going on due and they are going to be supporting main convention.

We are able to do an event on Sunday the 9th of December at the white cliff cafe, this may consist of a speaker jam and Dinner. We are at the moment looking at £4 + per head per person. Kat has stated that we would not be charged for the venue due to the fact that we would be buying from their bar etc. Possible recovery roast dinner and speaker jam, Kat to call the venue and find out the price for a Sunday roast. Kat to call the venue this Monday to get some details of pricing for roast dinner and timings etc.

Nick has come to the meeting to ask if we can possibly make this a fundraiser for the upcoming convention next year and the committee has voted in favour of this to support the areas subcommittees. Also he has asked that some of the member's from this committee come and support the convention committee to form some ideas details of the next convention meeting where given.
