Current Commitments

Bowerman House:	Sally-Ann reported: We've had two really good meetings. They seem to really appreciate me going in twice a month. The attendance has been about 7-8 clients all participating and sharing and also doing meetings locally so very positive and it's always powerful and positive.
BHT Recovery Project:	Kat reported: A great meeting, all attendees shared back. Both me and the chair felt full of gratitude (Natalie B-C to take over once a month in May, we still need more members to take meetings for the other 3 weeks a month).
The Lighthouse:	Peter reported: The Worthing Lighthouse meeting is going well. We get a good response from attendees and they seems engaged. Aaron reported: Meetings well attended by clients ESH shares from NA members, great feedback from clients.
Shore House:	Mark reported: It was in worse chaos than usual with workmen in the room. When they left I started the meeting, two members of staff stayed and did readings, one resident attended. As the residents are all using and Shore House is high support for mental health, we can only hope to plant a seed. Moving forward Nicky and I will do alternate months and take a member to share their ESH.
HMP Lewes	4 x NA members will be attending a Recovery Education Day on 27 th March. We will take NA literature.
Millview Hospital:	Weekly meetings are starting on Tuesday 17 th March at 6.30pm Jenna to Panel lead, Jill to 12-step her into the role, Katie to do ESH share.
YMCA Portslade:	Presentation on 23 rd March at 3pm to Ruby Fond/team (Lucy/Nicky + 1)
CGL Hastings	Presentation on 26 th March at 12 noon (Jill/Mark/Ben)

Literature: All literature requests have been fulfilled. Steve to liaise with Mark re literature needed for Lewes Prison Education Day.

Poster Distribution Poster distribution is going well. We still need members to come forward to cover Polegate, Rye and St Leonards on Sea.

AOB

BRCH: Adam to talk to contact in Drugs and Alcohol Unit at Worthing Hospital to give us some guidance.

HMP Ford: A higher level of security has been introduced, so we are still in negotiations. Another member will take on this position from Steve

Phase One Hostel: Ben to take over from Jill

The Hove Practice: Ben to take over from Jill

Meadowfield Natalie B-C has emailed several times/no response as yet.
