Current Commitments

Bowerman House:	Sally-Ann reported: Another great meeting, six clients attended, all engaged and shared. Very positive meeting.
Recovery Project:	Kat/Steve L/ Tyler. Kat reported: BHT continues to be great service much enjoyed by the residents and me! Tyler reported: Meeting went well, most shared back. More engaged this week.
Lighthouse Worthing	Brian B/Aaron: Brian B reported: Lighthouse continues to be a rewarding service to be part of with 10-12 clients who seem keen to hear of NA and ask questions. Aaron reported: Well at attended 10-13 clients share meeting from NA members ESH. Good feedback from clients and staff.
BRCH	Wayne/John: No report this month.
Shore House:	Mark K spoke to Jim from Shore House on the telephone and had a good conversation about how this will work. Nicky and Mark to attend on 3 rd December 12-1pm
HMP Lewes	Meetings are set to begin during the last week in November 2025, on Tuesdays during 'free movement' within the education centre.
Sussex University:	Louise is coordinating the annual presentation to medical students on 28 th November 2-5pm.
Millview Hospital:	Mark K reported: Mine and Nicky's presentation went down really well (on 5 th November). They asked us loads of questions which we answered. I left them with 3 helpline posters and some pamphlets and meetings lists. Nick McMasters said he will be in touch to discuss how often to take the meeting in. Kat reported it has been suggested that meetings could be held in Palmeira Ward, a 13-bed female acute admissions ward, with the best slot being any time Tuesday-Fri at 6pm.  We are currently looking for people to take on this commitment (see positions vacant above).

Literature: All literature requests have been fulfilled.

Poster Distribution

Lucy reported: Poster sprint is going well. Crawley is the only area not covered yet so volunteers needed please.

NB Clean time requirement to do a poster distribution run is 6 months, to be done in pairs.

AOB

HMP Ford	We are hearing some encouragement coming from HMP Ford. It needs some discussion with Ford SMS team. When we have more information everyone will know.
YMCA Portslade:	Lucy has drafted a letter which has been approved and will be sent asap.
Phase One Hostel:	Jill to email to tell them we will be in contact to arrange a presentation in January.
Meetings lists:	Are available now.
