Current Commitments

Bowerman House: Sally-Ann reported: No news yet as I start my year on 15/1.

Recovery Project: Kat/Steve L/ Tyler. Kat reported: BHT continues to be great service, well-attended. Residents have been identifying and sharing back.

Lighthouse Worthing; Aaron reported: Meeting well attended, normally around 13 clients, although over Xmas and New Year period there were a smaller number in the facility, so around 5/6 attended last week. Peter reported: All is well as The Lighthouse. People are VERY appreciative of our presence. Some of the younger ones have real concerns around the word GOD so I read them the spiritual Journey reading and they liked it. Should we include it? I'm extremely happy in my service as it feels like I'm really passing the message.

BRCH We are looking for two NA members to take on this commitment, on a Tuesday evening. (Jill has emailed Emma Sporage at CGL Brighton Outreach about the possibility of going on a different evening, in which case Wayne and John may be able to do it).

Shore House: Mark reported: We are going in at 1.45 on Wednesday 14th January for an hour.

HMP Lewes                      Steve reports: I am trying to get an update about gate passes etc – Xmas holidays affected communications. We aim to meet at 8.45 on Tuesdays once this has all been sorted.

Millview Hospital:            Natalie S has taken on this commitment as Co-panel leader. The plan is to begin meetings on Palmeira Ward on Tuesday 17th March at 6.00pm for one hour. Natalie and Nick McMasters at Millview have been given each other's email addresses so they can be in contact with each other. Jenna will be able to take on the co-panel leader position on 24th March once she has been successfully nominated and voted in.

Nick McMasters is checking start date (17th March) and day of week suggested (Tues) with his colleagues on Palmeira Ward before confirming.

Literature: All literature requests have been fulfilled.

Poster Distribution

Lucy reported:                      Everything is going great with poster distribution as a few more volunteers have come forward and they will let me know when those areas are done. Peter and Adam have volunteered to do the Worthing area. Katherine and MJ are going to do Eastbourne. We still need members to cover Chichester and Newhaven. Jill +1 to do the Hastings area in February.

AOB

HMP Ford:                            A higher level of security has been introduced, so we are still in negotiations.

YMCA Portslade:                 Jill to send email which Lucy composed at the end of last year.

Phase One Hostel:                Jill has emailed them

The Hove Practice:                Jill has emailed them
